LAY SUBSIDY ROLL,
A.D. 1603,
FOR
THE COUNTY OF WORCESTER.

EDITED FOR
THE WORCESTERSHIRE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

BY JOHN AMPHLETT OF CLENT.

Printed for the Worcestershire Historical Society,
By JAMES PARKER AND CO., OXFORD.

1901.

INTRODUCTION.

THIS Roll has come, among a number of old deeds, into the possession of Mr. F. S. Pearson, a member of the Society, who has kindly allowed it to be printed. No copy of it is in the Record Office, and therefore it seemed well to print it at once, without waiting for the time when it would fall into its place in the series of Rolls which the Society is publishing in chronological order; if the present opportunity of publishing a roll in private hands is not seized, it may not be attainable when in the future it is wanted.

The Roll relates to the Hundreds of Halfshire and Doddingtree, two of the five Hundreds into which the county of Worcester is divided, those two which form the Northern part of the county. It consists of six membranes sewn together at one end, written on back and front, and is in good preservation, only one small portion being too faded to be legible. The Commissioners, Richard Walshe and Edward Pytts, both appear in the Roll under Clifton and Kyre Wyard respectively; the Collector, Henry Cookes, also appears under Tardebigge; all these being members of well-known Worcestershire families. The circumstances under which the sums came to be collected are sufficiently clear from the preamble of the Roll itself.

In one of the publications of the Surtees Society, Rural Economy in Yorkshire in 1641, being the farming and account books of Henry Best of Elmswell¹, several details are given relating to the collecting of a subsidy at a period a little later than that of the present Roll. After dealing with the manner of appointing collectors and the fees that were paid, the account goes on to say, "the wealthiest and most able subsidy men are always set down as so much in terris, and the meaner sort of them in bonis; as for Recusants, they are always rated per pole, viz. 8*d.* a man.

Now as for those that are set down so much in terris, look how many pounds they are assessed, and they are to pay for every pound 4s., as for example, a Justice of the Peace is usually set down £10 in terris, out of which he is to pay 40s.; and those that are rated in bonis are to pay in every pound 2s. 8d., or as we say, 4s. in the pound for lands, and eight groats in the pound for goods¹." In the case of the present Roll the sums are different. They are 2s. 8d. in the pound for lands and 1s. 8d. in the pound for goods.

The fact that the amounts on which persons had to pay in this Roll are not only, in the majority of instances, round numbers, but in so many cases similar sums would lead to the belief that they were merely estimates or units of assessment rather than accurate valuations of persons' estates, whether of goods moveable or immoveable. From the above book it appears that this was actually the case. The actual taxpayers were the "subsidy men," and though possibly each one was personally responsible for the amount set down in the Roll against his name, yet he was helped to make up the amount by the contributions of lesser people. "The richest and ablest men in every town are or should be subsidy men, and the poorer and more insufficient sort only bearers with them²." And the following example is given:—

"Elmswell rate for the subsidy, April 28th, 1641.

Assessors for the subsidy there,

Henry Best,
William Pinder.

Henry Best in bonis	7 li.
William Whitehead in bonis	3 li.

The bill ends here.

Henry Best his rate for the subsidy of 7*li. in bonis*, which for two subsidies cometh at 2s. 8d.³ per pound to 37s. 4d., whereof he himself is to pay 31s. 4d., and Edward Lynsley his bearer, 6s.

William Whitehead, 3*li. in bonis* comes to 16s., whereof William Pinder, a bearer with him, payeth 3s. 4d., Richard Parrott, another bearer with him, 2s. 8d., so that his own share cometh but to 10s. just⁴."

² Ibid.

³ The calculation in both cases is for two subsidies.

⁴ p. 87.

From this we might gather that the amount of the subsidy to be provided by each parish was a fixed sum, as is the quota of the Land-tax of the present day, and that it was apportioned symmetrically by the parish assessors among the most responsible parishioners, without regard to their actual means, and that the persons named in the subsidy roll were a kind of collector responsible not only for their own share but for those of several of their humbler neighbours; and while it is clear from the roll itself that all persons whose riches were below 20s. in lands or 60s. in goods, who might reside in a parish, are not mentioned, it by no means follows that all those of superior rank are included, as they might not have been made subsidy-men, and their contributions to the taxation would go to swell the shares of other persons. That the sums were arbitrarily apportioned is clear also from the statement that a Justice of the Peace was usually assessed at £10 in lands. And so it follows that the lists found in a subsidy roll for any village must not necessarily be taken to include all even of the property-holding inhabitants, or to give the actual extent of any one's property¹.

The following list gives the names of the villages which were assessed to this subsidy in the two Hundreds with which this roll deals; and the amounts paid by the inhabitants of each. I have not attempted to make any additions, but have accepted the figures of the roll as they stand. It will at once be seen that the richest parishes, measured by their taxation, were not to be found in what are now the manufacturing districts.

¹ Probably all down the years subsidies had been assessed in this manner, from the times of the Danegeld and Domesday Book. Professor Maitland in Domesday Book and Beyond, p. 120, says, "The geld is a land tax, a tax of so much per head or per carucate. In all likelihood it has been assessed according to a method we might call sub-partitioned provincial quotas. The assumption has been made that a shire or other large district contains a certain number of hides; this number has then been apportioned among the hundreds of the shire, and the number allotted to each hundred has been apportioned among the villis of that hundred. The common result is that some even number of hides, five, ten, or the like, is attributed to that vill."
